

Embed:

Year 11 GCSE Food and Nutrition Curriculum Sequence

Intent: To embed GCSE Ideas within NEA & prepare students for external examinations.

Why These modules? Introduction of NEA 1 topic to experiment with foods in line with coursework requirements until October Half Term.	Why These modules? Introduction of NEA 2 topic to start main body of coursework requirements leading to trial dish practice around the end of term.	Why These modules? Continuation of NEA 2 topic leading to decision over dishes and planning to carry out effective practical after February Half Term.	Why These modules? Finishing of NEA 2 topic for Easter with practical carried out and evaluations completed.
National Curriculum Links Pupils will: Learn content in line with specification requirement 4 – The Science of Food and 6 – Cooking and Food Preparation.	National Curriculum Links Pupils will: Produce coursework as per the requirements of the specification.	National Curriculum Links Pupils will: Produce coursework as per the requirements of the specification.	National Curriculum Links Pupils will: Produce coursework as per the requirements of the specification and complete cooking assessment.
HT1 supports: Students experimenting with certain foods to determine the best ingredients for certain applications.	HT2 supports: Students providing assessment data towards their GCSE grade.	HT3 supports: Students providing assessment data towards their GCSE grade.	HT4 supports: Students providing assessment data towards their GCSE grade.
Feeds from: Learning from Year 10 where the range of commodities were investigated and working characteristics investigated, trialled and discussed.	Feeds from: Learning from Year 10 where a mini project was carried out to prepare students for their coursework.	Feeds from: Learning from Year 10 where a mini project was carried out to prepare students for their coursework.	Feeds from: Learning from Year 10 where a mini project was carried out to prepare students for their coursework and practical skills learnt in Years 9 and 10.		