Why these modules? Thes Warfare units are taught chronologically but contain themes which repeat across the studies	These units are taught chronologically but contain themes which repeat across the studies Focus on compulsory unit of London during the Blitz makes sense in the context of 20th Century Warfare through time	Why These modules? The early reign of Elizabeth is fundamental to understanding the rest of her reign and therefore the only logical place to start – the themes and problems underpin the contents in units 2 and 3	Why These modules? Logically and Chronologically the challenges to the vulnerable Elizabeth make sense to do next leading to worsening relations and war with Spain	Why These modules? This unit looks more at some cross period themes such as the Poor and Exploration which makes sense to do at the end with some contextual knowledge of the period	Why These modules? The unit sets up the story of the Weimar Republic and the Rise of the Nazis so must go 1st. The rest of the contents follows on chronologically
