Sandbach School History and Politics Curriculum:

Y13 A-level Politics Curriculum Sequence

Intent: Our Year 13 Curriculum will continue to develop political analysis, comparison and evaluation between the British and American systems and government. Pupils will also develop the ability to understand the World through a set of political theoretic lens.

Term 1

Review Conservatism summer work

UK Parties + US Parties

Feminism

Term 2

UK Elections + US Elections
Uk Relations Between Branches + US
Supreme Court + Comparative theories

Term 3

Exams and Revision

Why start here?

Start Year 13 with a review of the Conservatism summer work and then start with the study and comparison of the 2 sets of political parties
Pupils will also cover Feminism after pupil feedback

Why move onto these units?

Logically from what parties stand for and who they typically represent to how to win elections in UK and USA
Then pupils will look at relations between branches of government particularly the roles played by the Supreme Courts in both settings
