

PSHCE and British Values at Sandbach School

Aims of PSHCE and British Values at Sandbach School:

Sandbach School constantly strives to focus on the personal development of the whole individual. The PSHCE curriculum is a planned and structured programme of learning through which students acquire the knowledge, understanding and skills needed to succeed in the ever changing world.

As part of a whole school approach, PSHCE at Sandbach School develops the qualities and attributes students need to thrive as individuals as well as members of society. In addition, Sandbach School strives to develop the values that underpin British society and life.

These values are demonstrated across the everyday curriculum as well as wider school life and the aspects of British values include:

1. Equality and Respect
2. Democracy and the Rule of Law
3. Tolerance
4. Rights and Responsibilities
5. Citizenship and community

Delivery of PSHCE/British Values

- PSHCE is delivered during Wednesday Pastoral sessions of 25 mins and 45 mins by form tutors.
- Form tutors use resources prepared in advance that are discussed at the tutor team meeting prior to the unit of work being delivered.

PSHCE is also delivered via 2 Student Enrichment Days.
