Overall Impact Statement

Drama is an artform, a practical activity and an intellectual discipline. Performing Arts at Sandbach School aims to foster a lifelong love of the Arts through working collaboratively together creatively in groups of various sizes. Performing Arts will provide a safe context to explore human concerns and relationships, social wellbeing, personal maturity and emotional literacy. We aim to nurture a wide range of creative thinking and teamwork skills which can be applied across multiple employment sectors, as well as equipping students with the ability to work professionally in the cultural and creative industries.

Year 13

Year 11

Component 3

Component 1

Component 1

Political

Theatre

Bridging

Course

Melodrama

Soundscapes

Continued

Component 3

Component 1

Component 3 and

written exam

Component

1 Continued

Artaud

oundation

Devised

Scripts

Course

Camelot

Charlie and the

Mister Tom

Goodnight

Continued

INTENT

Advanced Qualifications Phase

Course

Connoonent 2

Students will develop a rich and diverse understanding of the Theatre and Performance. They will have breadth and depth of knowledge of Practitioner theory and practise. They will have confidence in expression and fluency in language and communication. They will be mature, independent thinkers.

Qualifications Phase

Students will use their increasing knowledge and understanding of the elements of Drama to effectively shape, express and share their ideas, feelings and responses, making use of language, space, symbol, allegory and metaphor. Students will develop the vocabulary of the language of theatre and expression.

Transition Phase

In this phase, students will learn through dramatic play, leading to an understanding of many elements of theatre. Students will utilise imagination and feelings to make sense of their world. They will create imagined characters and scenarios to engage with and understand feelings they will encounter, as well as seeing the world through the work of playwrights and authors.

Potential Destinations

Creative degrees at University, Jobs within the creative industries, apprenticeships, Drama school/ professional training, wider career or training fields incorporating broader skills range.

Play Text 2 and Play Text 3 and Mock Mock Component 3 Component 2

Year 12 Stanislavski History of and Theatre Naturalism

Playscript

Component

Continued 3 Playscript

Year 10 Mock Frankenstein Component 1

Greek o Year Theatre Deva

Year 8

Folklore

Puppetry

and

Blood

Brothers

Key Stage 2 Drama National Curriculum

Miner's Strikes

give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings

Macbeth

- speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard
- participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates
- gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s)
- select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.

IMPACT

Advanced Qualifications Phase

Students will be confident performers having experienced a range of practitioners and genres. They will be able to write in a mature and sophisticated style using the depth of their theatrical knowledge. They will be leaders, driving creative expression through diverse artistic style.

Qualifications Phase

Students will demonstrate clarity in written expression, reflecting on their creative processes. They will understand the different staging types and how to utilise them. They will have developed acting and technical skills to express their views on society. They will have experienced a wide range of play texts and styles.

Transition Phase

Students will be able to work collaboratively as part of an ensemble. They will be capable of devising simple characters and scenarios. They will have developed fluency in reading scripts. Students will be confident to perform individually and as part of a group. They will be capable of expressing their feelings on the world around them.

/

Year