Why these modules? Elizabeth Unit – This is the next unit Chronologically from the end of Yr 9. It is a very memorable unit for the start of Yr 10 and allows pupils to make connections with their year 9 study Thes Warfare units are taught chronologically but contain themes which repeat across the studies	These units are taught chronologically but contain themes which repeat across the studies	These units are taught chronologically but contain themes which repeat across the studies	Why These modules? Focus on compulsory unit of London during the Blitz makes sense in the context of 20th Century Wafare through time	Why These modules? This is the ideal module to start here. There is some continuity with skills from Whitechapel study and it is a very interesting unit to hook pupils. This unit is a change of pace to the previous units	Why These modules? Chronologically this unit follows on from Unit 1 and develops knowledge of Weimar in he 1920s and the rise, fall and rise of the Nazis, set against the background of World events.
